

I believe the NJ law about the DoNot Call Lists is fair and good. Because of this law, we can now have a dinner hour as a family with no interruptions. It has stopped the many solicitors from calling two and three times in a week with the same speel. Do not change our law. Perhaps other states should try adopting the same law as we in New Jersey have.